
Internship at the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development

Call:

The OECD in collaboration with the AQUAE Chair in Water Economics calls for an internship to support Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development in the area of water governance and sustainable development.

For this purpose, the AQUAE Chair in Water Economics will support the selection of a candidate to conduct an Internship at the OECD. The selected candidate will support the head of the OECD Water Governance Programme and the team with desk research, drafting reports, data analysis, communication and event organisation in the area of water governance and sustainable development.

The UNED is a research institution that, with the support of the AQUAE Foundation, works on topics such as circular economy, future of water resources, sustainable development, and water management.

The intern will be based at OECD, Paris, at the Unit for Climate, Water, and SDGs, within the Cities, Urban Policies, and Sustainable Development Division of the Centre for Entrepreneurship, SMEs, Regions and Cities.

The internship period is from 1 September 2018 to 28 February 2019.

Requirements and conditions:

Applicants should take a keen interest in water and governance, have excellent drafting and oral skills in English, and be enrolled in a university degree, preferably a PhD or alternatively in 2nd year of Master in economics, public policy, social sciences or related disciplines. Knowledge of Spanish and French would be a comparative advantage.

Candidate should meet the following requirements:

- Be citizen of an OECD member country.
- Be full time student in a discipline related to the above programme of work for the whole 6-month period.
- Be enrolled within a University able to sign internship agreements with the OECD.

The selected candidate will receive an allowance of 702 €/month, which cannot be cumulated with other paid jobs or consultancy duties, but it can be compatible with scholarships (e.g. Erasmus, PhD fellowships, etc.). All other fees and costs (travel, accommodation, visa etc.) are not covered by the OECD.

Interested candidates that fulfil the basic requirements are kindly invited to send a CV and cover letter by 15 June 2018 to the email of the AQUAE Chair in Water Economics catedraeconomiadelagua@cee.uned.es, indicating the subject: Internship at the OECD. The candidate will be selected by the OECD.
